POLICY STATEMENT:

The St. Clair Catholic District School Board believes that school and Board websites are an important resource in effective communication with our partners in Catholic education, and helping to profile our school communities to promote the distinct difference which Catholic education offers.

POLICY GOAL:

The St. Clair Catholic District School Board is committed to effective communication, and to promoting our school communities and the mission of Catholic education through various media, including school and Board websites. The Board also recognizes the need to ensure the safety and privacy of its students.
