ST. CLAIR CATHOLIC DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD REACHES CONTRACT AGREEMENT WITH APSSP

The St. Clair Catholic District School Board has reached an agreement with the Association of Professional School Services Personnel (APSSP).

“I am pleased that the Board and the APSSP executive have been able to bargain to a successful conclusion in contract negotiations,” says Paul Wubben, Director of Education. “Our APSSP staff members are dedicated professionals, who provide important services for our students and their families.”

The APSSP membership has voted unanimously in favour of the new two year agreement, which contains no increases in salaries or benefits.

The APSSP bargaining unit represents 19 full-time and part-time employees, who provide student support services, through speech-language pathologists, social workers, child and youth workers and an applied behaviour analysis specialist.

The contract runs from September 1, 2012 to August 31, 2014.
