HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC SCHOOL 'ME TO WE' GROUP COLLECTS MORE THAN 2,000 CANNED GOODS FOR INN OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Students at Holy Trinity Catholic School in Sarnia are working to 'scare away hunger!'

The school's social justice committee, working in partnership with the Me to We organization, organized a canned food drive and collected more than 2,000 non-perishable food items, which will be donated to the Inn of the Good Shepherd.

"This has been a tremendous campaign," says Scott Johnson, Principal of Holy Trinity Catholic School.

"Not only have the students collected an amazing amount of food, but they have also worked to raise awareness about the needs within our local community," says Mr. Johnson. "I am proud of their work and of the contribution they are making to people who need our help.

The school has also teamed up with Grogan Ford to get the food delivered to the Inn of the Good Shepherd.
