DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION ANNOUNCES MID-YEAR PRINCIPAL AND VICE PRINCIPAL TRANSFERS

Director of Education Dan Parr has announced several principal and vice principal transfers, which will take place in December.

“Transfers in school administration at mid-year are not all that common; however, this year the internal appointments of a new Director of Education and Superintendent of Education have created a domino effect that necessitates some changes in school leadership,” says Dan Parr, Director of Education.

Mr. Parr has announced the following changes effective December 1, 2017.

- Kelly VanBoxtel, currently Principal of St. Ursula Catholic School, to Principal of Our Lady of Fatima Catholic School.
- Mary Ann McCrae, currently acting Principal of St. Agnes Catholic School, to Principal of St. Ursula Catholic School.
- Mark Bernard, currently Vice Principal of St. Matthew Catholic School, to acting Principal of St. Agnes Catholic School.
- Tamara Johnson, currently 30% vice principal of Sacred Heart Catholic School in Sarnia, will become 50% Vice Principal at Sacred Heart Catholic School, Sarnia and 50% Vice Principal at St. Matthew Catholic School.

“We are blessed in St. Clair Catholic to have a fine complement of principals and vice principals,” says Mr. Parr. “I know our school communities will welcome these seasoned Catholic leaders, who will bring their many gifts and talents to their new schools.”
