

URSULINE COLLEGE CHATHAM

SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS, BURSARIES and INDIGENOUS SERVICES

The following is a partial list of Canadian scholarship resources, as well as Chatham-Kent scholarships and bursaries. Apply to any that you feel may be applicable. Feel free to contact your guidance counsellor with any questions you might have.

Scholarship Resources

There are many resources available to assist you in your search for scholarships, bursaries and awards. Students are asked to consult the scholarships/bursaries websites to determine various deadlines.

1. www.scholarshipscanada.com
 - up to date information about financial assistance for students entering post-secondary education
 - “advanced search” allows students to match their skills, and interests to specific resources

2. New website <https://ScholarTree.ca> Students create a simple profile and based on the information they provide (including school, field of interest, volunteer experience etc.) students will receive a list of scholarships they qualify for.

3. www.studentawards.com
 - matches a student’s skills, interests and special circumstances to appropriate financial assistance
 - provides updates when new financial assistance becomes available
 - students will be matched to scholarships, awards, contests and offers that perfectly fit their profiles

4. www.ontariocolleges.ca
 - click on Plan and search Money Matters

5. <https://osap.gov.on.ca/OSAPPortal>
 - Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP)

6. www.osca.ca

- click Student Resources
- click Scholarships and Financial Assistance

7. Indigenous Services

www.canada.ca

- go to Focus on-Indigenous Peoples, Education, Training and Jobs, then to Post-Secondary Education
- discover programs to support First Nations and Inuit students pursuing post-secondary education and career development

<http://www.universitystudy.ca/indigenous-programs-and-services-directory/>

- Resources for Indigenous students, who plan on attending university, listing services including: On and Off-Campus Programs, Academic and General Counselling, Housing and Residence information, etc...

8. www.disabilityawards.ca

www.ldao.ca/ldao-services/ldao-scholarships-bursaries

- Scholarships and awards are available for students with learning disabilities

Notes:

Bursary applications sponsored by Ursuline College are due June 1st of the current school year to the Guidance department.

Students are encouraged to investigate the post-secondary institution of choice for available entrance scholarships and bursaries.
