DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION ANNOUNCES PRINCIPAL APPOINTMENTS FOR SEPTEMBER 2018

Earlier this month, it was announced that Rob Cicchelli, Principal of St. Patrick's Catholic High School, Sarnia has accepted a secondment to the Ministry of Education. Mr. Cicchelli has been appointed to the position of Student Achievement Officer for the London West Region.

"We are of course pleased at this opportunity for new experiences and professional growth for Rob; however, we are all too aware of the loss to our system of his great breadth of knowledge, wisdom and experience," says Deb Crawford, Director of Education. "Rob has been a wise counsellor, strong mentor and trusted friend. He will be missed."

Mr. Cicchelli's secondment will result in further principal reassignments. In addition, Adrien Gagnier is returning from an extended leave and is ready to resume his duties as a principal in St. Clair Catholic.

The following appointments were announced at tonight's Regular Board Meeting and are effective September 1, 2018:

- Chris Kehoe – Principal, St. Philip Catholic School, Petrolia is appointed to Principal, St. Patrick's Catholic High School, Sarnia;
- Joanne McCreery, Principal, Sacred Heart Catholic School, Port Lambton is appointed to Principal, St. Philip Catholic School, Petrolia;
- Jen Morrow, Vice Principal of Our Lady of Fatima Catholic School, Chatham and previously appointed Principal of St. Agnes Catholic School, Chatham is now appointed to Principal, Sacred Heart Catholic School, Port Lambton;
- Jeanne Girard, Principal, St. Joseph Catholic School, Chatham is appointed to Principal, St Agnes Catholic School, Chatham;
- Adrien Gagnier is appointed to Principal, St. Joseph Catholic School, Chatham.

"Chris, Joanne, Jen, Jeanne and Adrien are experienced and gifted Catholic leaders," says Mrs. Crawford. "I know their new school communities will look forward to welcoming them in September!"
