TWO STUDENTS ELECTED TO THE POSITION OF STUDENT TRUSTEE FOR THE 2012–2013 SCHOOL YEAR

Two students, one from St. Christopher Catholic Secondary School and one from Ursuline College, have been elected to serve as Student Trustees for the 2012-2013 school year.

In recent years, only one secondary student has been elected to the position, to represent all students; however, as a result of a change in Policy 10.3 – Student Trustee on the Board, which comes into effect July 1, 2012, two students have been elected to serve.

In order to be eligible, students must be Catholic, enrolled full-time in at least Grade 11, have access to transportation to attend meetings and have a record of good attendance.

Sarah Guzik, a St. Christopher Catholic Secondary School student will represent Catholic school students in Sarnia-Lambton; and Shannon Payne, a student at Ursuline College Chatham Catholic Secondary School will represent students of Chatham-Kent, following elections in both Sarnia and Chatham on April 19, 2012.

“I am pleased on behalf of the Board to offer my congratulations to both Sarah and Shannon,” says Paul Wubben, Director of Education. “Trustees and members of senior administration look forward to hearing their reports at the Board table.”
