DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION ANNOUNCES CHANGES IN PRINCIPAL ASSIGNMENTS FOR SEPTEMBER 2017

Director of Education Dan Parr has announced two changes to the principal assignments for the 2017-2018 school year.

It is an unusual year, in that there are no retirements to announce; therefore, the changes are intended to offer opportunities for new challenges for two long-serving school leaders.

The reassignments are:

- Mark Renaud, Principal, St. Philip Catholic School, Petrolia is appointed to Principal, St. Matthew Catholic School, Sarnia; and
- Chris Kehoe, Principal, St. Matthew Catholic School, Sarnia is appointed to Principal, St. Philip Catholic School, Petrolia.

“I am grateful for the many gifted and capable administrators in the St. Clair family, and for the unique abilities they bring to their roles,” says Mr. Parr.

The appointments are effective September 1, 2017.
