

Gas Leak Near Holy Rosary School in Wyoming Results in Shelter in Place

Please be advised that Holy Rosary Catholic School in Wyoming has been placed in Shelter in Place.

The Shelter in Place has been called by the Wyoming Fire Department as a precaution, due to a gas leak that has occurred just outside the school property. Lambton OPP, Fire Services and Enbridge are aware of the situation and are working on a resolution.

All students and staff are safe inside the building and all windows and doors are closed. Building air intakes have been closed. Staff and students will remain inside the building until directed by emergency services.

For safety reasons access to the school is limited, please do not come to the school.

Updates to follow.
