

St. Clair Catholic Celebrates Opening and Blessing Ceremonies for Two Newest Schools

St. Clair Catholic is excited to announce the opening and blessing ceremonies for its two newest schools: St. Teresa of Calcutta Catholic School and Gregory A. Hogan Catholic School.

"Our dedication to faith-filled education and community engagement is at the heart of everything we do," said Scott Johnson, Director of Education. "With the unveiling of these new schools, we commence an exciting new chapter in our continued pursuit of academic excellence and spiritual growth."

The ceremonies, scheduled for Wednesday, October 16, highlight St. Clair Catholic's commitment to providing environments where faith and excellence intersect. Bishop Ronald Fabbro of the Diocese of London will lead the Masses, blessing the schools and setting them on a path toward spiritual and academic fulfillment.

Itinerary:

- 9:30 a.m. – Opening and Blessing Ceremony at St. Teresa of Calcutta Catholic School
- 1:15 p.m. – Opening and Blessing Ceremony at Gregory A. Hogan Catholic School

Notable attendees include MPPs Bob Bailey (Sarnia-Lambton) and Trevor Jones (Chatham-Kent – Leamington), Mayors Mike Bradley (Sarnia) and Darrin Canniff (Chatham-Kent), along with students, families, and staff.

St. Teresa of Calcutta Catholic School opened in Chatham in September 2024, and Gregory A. Hogan Catholic School in Sarnia opened in March. Both provincially funded schools serve students from kindergarten to Grade 8, with Gregory A. Hogan offering French Immersion programming.

"As we embark on this journey of opening our newest schools, let us remain steadfast in our commitment to cultivating environments where faith, excellence, and community partnership flourish," said John Van Heck, Chair of the Board. "We extend heartfelt appreciation to our communities and partners for their support as we shape a future full of promise."
