Questions

- 1) Question: One year maintenance – is the cutting of the grass to be by the contractor for one full year?

Answer: Maintenance to be by the owner. Please delete Specification Section 02990 – One Year Maintenance. Contractor is to guarantee sod as per section 02422.
Delete temporary fencing around new grass area.

- 2) Question: One basketball pole is missing, another is damaged, is the contractor to supply/install additional poles?

Answer: Owner will supply two new basketball poles to be installed by the contractor.
Contractor is to relocate four existing basketball poles.

- 3) Question: Are the Enviroworx bins to be installed by the general contractor or Enviroworx installers?

Answer: Installer selection is at the discretion of the general contractor.

If installed by the General Contractor, the Envirowirx product warranty will remain valid.

If installed by the General Contractor, Envirowirx will not cover any damage that may occur during installation or if the bin is installed improperly, as is true of any product installed by the contractor.
