4. Board Advisory Council Update - Tressa Brown and Sabrina Treftlin
 - 4.1. Minutes were scanned to the parent council
 - 4.2. Mental Health and Wellbeing supports - on board website, very user friendly, has tips and ideas for students and families, way to reach out - if someone is worried about someone - can self-refer to supports - this is an excellent resource and they want the word to get out
 - 4.3. Learning Online on the Parent Hub on the board website - there will be a variety of links on the parent hub, many interesting things to check out, these are recorded
 - 4.4. Thought Exchange - responses were relative to students learning mode and age, big concerns were getting outside & schools are trying to get students outside, daily breaks were another big issue, that is being addressed in classes, another concern was consistency in virtual school. There will be another coming up to gather thoughts and ideas .
 - 4.5. Next year calendar - has been put out in draft to the BAC
5. Vice-Principal's Reports
 - 5.1. Indigenous Leadership - Tamara Johnson
 - 5.1.1. Many leadership opportunities are occurring for the students including creating a piece of artwork that can be made into cards or t-shirts, and April Break Family learning Series
 - 5.1.2. Ojibway Language Course - all of the students who took the course have earned the credit
 - 5.1.3. Land Acknowledgement - a variety of Indigenous and Non-Indigenous staff and students are being recorded to be played frequently on the morning announcements
 - 5.2. Technology and Edsby - Tamara Johnson-we have enough technology prepared in case there is a need to pivot to fully virtual learning. Edsby remains an important tool for parent communication, including delivery of report cards.
 - 5.3. Lockdown drill with COVID-19 protocol Erin-a variation of Lockdown was held, trying to maintain physical distancing and all Covid protocols.
 - 5.4. Signage - Erin
 - 5.4.1. Refreshed as necessary, limiting congregating in washrooms by reducing numbers allowed
 - 5.5. Step Forward, SWAC and Dual Credits - Erin- all are running as usual
 - 5.6. PPE - Karoline
 - 5.6.1. inventory every other Thursday taken so that we have enough supplies, and it is fully restocked the next week
 - 5.7. OSSLT - Karoline
 - 5.7.1. standing pattern right now- this graduating class has the requirement waived, two cohorts, and a few others are in line to write this test, Week of April 26th there will be class meetings, week of May 10th will be our week to write - the test has been updated to one long writing piece, a response piece and answering multiple choice questions regarding items on the test
6. Student Services Update
 - 6.1. MyBlueprint

- 6.1.1. Parental approval feature - email that gets sent to parent, then they can approve or disapprove, then they could be contacted to discuss/change email
- 6.1.2. Were able to group students and make grade presentation for course selections
- 6.2. OSAP financial aid presentation- Thurs April 1st. Arep from Lambton College will present to grade 12 students via a link sent to grade 12 classroom teachers/grade 12 students on spare and parents- applies to any student going to post secondary school
- 6.3. Grade 11 panel presentations
 - 6.3.1. pathways presentation for 6 colleges will present information and then have a Q and A (Conestoga, Fanshawe, Algonquin, Lambton...)
- 6.4. Academic Awards Assembly
 - 6.4.1. a whole day celebration, dignitaries speeches, students walked a stage to get their award and get a picture taken,
 - 6.4.2. evening - some students who had come back to get their awards or who were virtual

 - 6.5.2. All our students (in school and virtual) will graduate as Irish grads

- 7. Student Success Update: Diane Yurkewich
 - 7.1. Student success teams meet once a week, teachers refer students as necessary, the teams follow up with students and families, many more students are absent than normal - teams are busy serving kids to help them succeed

- 8. Wellness: supports at school-Dave Ostroplec-Social Worker and Linda Zoccano-Mental Health and Addictions Nurse
 - 8.1. supports for students and staff are available

- 9. Principal's Report
 - 9.1. Academic Awards Update(already spoken about by Jay)
 - 9.2. COVID Protocols
 - 9.2.1. enhanced protocols are similar to previous, some newer ones are that staff are to wear eye protection, students and staff are required to state they have passed screening
 - 9.2.2. recent cases at St Pat's - media sometimes makes something seem more sensational - an "outbreak" just means that two people in the same class got it, and there is a possibility that they might have given it to each other
 - 9.2.3. Covid protocols -we have 4 houses that are separated from each other, separate entrances and washrooms, supervision that is only for a few classes at a time, students are largely complying with the mask protocols
 - 9.2.4. Remember that quarantine is for an abundance of caution, one case can affect two busses and two classes - so the numbers feel like it is really large, but it is only a small number of cases. Some rumors get out of hand and some people irresponsibly tweet/spread inflammatory information.

9.4. Destreamed Grade 9 Math

- 9.4.1. Mr Majeski will be learning about this as our department head of math, essential level will be in a separate class, applied and academic courses will not occur - there will be one grade 9 math credit that will be an open credit to give students time to grow and learn for a year in grade 9 before deciding on a pathway in grade 10. There was data that the provincial ministry has looked at to support this move to a destreamed course. We have great confidence in our math department staff to be able to implement this change in the fall

9.5. Board Calendar - new calendar

- 9.5.1. New April/spring break is in this calendar, there is a transition day between quad three and four

9.6. OLG - Jackpot City

- 9.6.1. Tremendous support for our Music Program - new instruments in our music department have been purchased, typically we have volunteers that support, but with covid this has not been happening. St Pat's is very grateful for their support.

9.7. Student Trustee - Grace McCormack - will be the new trustee

9.8. Spirit Wear -question by a parent- is there any spirit wear available to be purchased?

9.9. Boy's uniform pants - looking into a new, more comfortable, modern pant - possibly for September 2022 (trying for something sooner)
