Dear Fighting Irish Families and Students:

This week, all students were scheduled to attend a myBlueprint Course Selection presentation. As a result of the bus cancellations today, Friday's presentations have been rescheduled to Tuesday, February 21. Further, in order to ensure equity, students will not be able to submit their courses for the 2023/2024 school year until the end of the school day on Tuesday, February 21.

Below, please find additional information regarding the presentations, course selection process, as well as resources available to students and families to assist in the course selection process. We kindly ask that you take the following steps in response to this correspondence:

Presentations – Selecting Courses

To assist students in choosing their courses for 2023/2024, they are encouraged to use the tools in myBlueprint:

- High School – Graduation Indicator
- Post-Secondary search option
- Occupation search option
- Who Am I surveys

Creating Your Family myBlueprint Account

By creating your family myBlueprint account, you will be able to access the Student View button which provides demo access for you to test out the features of myBlueprint, including the tools mentioned above. You will also be able to view select parts of your student's account. Information on creating a family myBlueprint account can be found in the most recent mediation of the Student Services Newsletter:

Approving Your Student’s Course Selections

In myBlueprint, once students submit their courses they are prompted with a Send Approval Email option. Once clicked, a parent or guardian’s email address can be added. The parent/guardian then receives a course selection approval request email, including the details of their student’s course selections. Please ensure you:

- Receive the Course Selection Approval Email
- Carefully review the courses that your student has selected
- Select either Approve Course Selection or Reject Request

Note: The last day for students to submit their course selections is Friday, March 10.

Further Assistance

Students are encouraged to make a guidance appointment – via our school website – if they have any questions or require further assistance in selecting their courses for next year.

Thank you.

Have a wonderful weekend,

Your Fighting Irish Student Services Team
